

ARTS NARROGIN

Because of You...

By Sandi Woo

It's time to PLAY!

Because of You... is a dance project for children aged 4 – 7 years and adults they love.

We are looking for up to 12 pairs (one child, one adult) to participate in this unique online dance project that culminates in live streamed performances on Friday 22 and Saturday 23 July 2022.

Choreographed by award winning artist, Sandi Woo, this project uses childhood games to create a unique performance. Online from your own home, Sandi will teach you these games and together with up to 5 other pairs you will create a dance performance about the diverse and unique bonds of love between young children and their parents, grandparents or carers.

In this project, it's children that take the creative lead.

Each pair will perform from your own home. The live vision from each of your homes will be combined and then streamed to an audience online.

Arts Narrogin and Annette Carmichael Projects will help you create the performance space in your own home using items of fabric and cardboard which we will provide to you.

How does it work?

This project runs for 5 weeks and we meet together online 3 – 4 times a week. Each session is only 40 minutes and timed to suit young children. At the end of the fifth week you will perform twice to an online, public audience. Performers are divided into two Pods. The cast for each Pod will be decided at the end of the second week.

What you need

A clear space in your home a minimum 3m x 3m (lounge room is good)

Internet connection

A computer, laptop or iPad that has a built in camera, speaker and microphone. (Smartphones can be used if you can link them to your TV screen). If you don't have any of this, let us know. Arts Narrogin is here to help us.

Cost - Free

Workshops and rehearsals

We know from past experience that performers have the best time when they can attend all workshops and rehearsals. It's OK to miss workshops if you or child is sick. (Please note that there is one Sunday workshop that is optional). Check out the attached project schedule.
